Lt. Colonel Peters is a native of Phoenixville, Pa., where his father, the late Martin L. Peters, served as superintendent of schools. His mother resides at York.

Graduated In 1938

He is a graduate of Gettysburg College in 1938, when he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration and a commission as a second lieutenant from the Gettysburg College ROTC. He has been with the armed forces since.

He received the commendation for meritorious service first in February, 1947, when he served as the liaison officer between the Air Force and Army performing the task of arranging the transfer of 14 air bases in Puerto Rico, previously under the Army's Antilles department to the Caribbean Air Command.

The second award, for which he was presented the Oak Leaf cluster Friday, covers the period from December 12, 1954, to April 30, 1957, when Colonel Peters served as personnel officer of the Twelfth Air Force's 21st Fighter Bomber Wing in France and as deputy assistant chief of staff for personnel at headquarters, 12th Air Force, Ramstein, Germany.

"Effective Performance"

The commendation notes that the award is based on "highly effective performance" with relation to organizing a new tactical Air Force Wing in California, moving it to a partially constructed NATO base in France and overcoming the many problems of developing the administrative and operational effectiveness of such a U.S. Air Force unit overseas.

"In these positions," the award states, "Lieutenant Colonel Peters has consistently exercised a high degree of judgment in the economical management of personnel and resources under his supervision. Through his efforts the mission of Twelfth Air Force has been enhanced and furthered in a period of tremendous expansion and increased responsibility. Lieutenant Colonel Peters' outstanding contribution to the personnel program within the Twelfth Air Force has increased the efficiency, esprit de corps and combat readiness of the United States Air Force in Europe. The outstanding leadership, professional skill and exemplary devotion to duty displayed by Lieutenant Colonel Peters reflect the highest credit upon himself and the United States Air Force."

Emergency Session Of Arkansas Legislature May Be Called In Integration Crisis Faubus Says

By ROBERT E. FORD
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — The summoning of an emergency session of the Arkansas Legislature in connection with the Little Rock integration crisis appeared possible today in the light of Gov. Orval Faubus' latest statements.

Faubus definitely opened the prospect of an emergency legislative session last night by saying he may call the lawmakers within 10 days.

The governor had said earlier that many legislators "pressured" him to call them to Little Rock so they could fight back against the federal government's forcible integration measures. Faubus also said that some legislators even offered to serve without pay.

Guarding Buildings

Meanwhile, the Army posted a small number of troops at Central High for the weekend—mainly, it said, to guard the buildings.

Nine Negro students completed their third full day of integrated classes yesterday and left under guard as usual when school was dismissed for the weekend.

But their guard of paratroopers was smaller, indicating that the Army considers it has the area under control. No demonstrators appeared, as they did Wednesday, the first day battle-garbed soldiers from the 101st Airborne Division escorted the nine into Central High.

Some Taunting

The three Negro boys and six girls ate at cafeteria tables with white children, and except for some minor taunting, there were no incidents. Soldiers walked alongside the Negroes when they changed classrooms.

Armed troops were threaded through the crowd of 6,000 last night as the Central High football team defeated Istrouma High of Baton Rouge, 15-6, in the 12,000-seat stadium on the Central High campus. No trouble developed, and no Negroes were seen in the crowd.

Might Abolish Schools

Faubus at a news conference last night was asked if it would be helpful for President Eisenhower to visit Little Rock.

21,575 ELIGIBLE TO VOTE NOV. 5 IN THIS COUNTY; GOP EDGE 1,554

A total of 21,575 persons will be eligible to vote in the November 5 general election, according to figures released by the Adams County election board today.

There are 11,411 Republicans, 9,857 Democrats and 303 non-partisan voters. There are also four adherents to other parties—all men. Three, one each in Butler and Conowingo Twp. and the Second Ward of McSherrystown, list their affiliation as Socialist. One, a resident of Hunting Twp. No. 2, is a Prohibitionist.

The record shows a continued slow decline in the Republican majority since the Presidential election a year ago. At the time of the election in 1956 there were 11,481 Republicans and 9,857 Democrats, giving the Republicans a 1,624 majority. By primary time this year there were 11,067 Republicans and 9,478 Democrats, making the Republican majority 1,589. At the present there are 11,411 Republicans and 9,857 Democrats, making the Republican majority 1,554.

4 Districts Over 1,000

Both the Republicans and Democrats gained adherents during the period from the primary election this spring to the present. The Republicans gained 344 while the Democrats increased by 378.

The current registration figures show four of the county's 42 voting districts now have more than 1,000 voters. Cumberland Twp. is the largest district with 1,228 enrolled voters — the largest number ever claimed by any township in the county's history. The other "more than 1,000" voters districts are Gettysburg Third Ward with 1,080; Conowingo Twp. with 1,029 and Straban Twp. with 1,004.

9,974 Women Voters

The first district in the county to go over the 1,000 mark was Gettysburg Second Ward in 1953, since then it has dropped below the 1,000 mark. Cumberland has had the largest voting population in the county since 1955 when it had 994 voters. In election time 1956 it had 1,191, at primary time this year 1,183 and today 1,228.

According to the records there are 11,601 men and 9,974 women voters. The number is a slight decline in both from the high of the Presidential election in 1956 when the number of women voters in the county exceeded the 10,000 mark for the first time in the county's history. Then there were 11,663 men and 10,008 women eligible to vote.

Klunk, chairman of the Adams County Democratic Committee, at a meeting of the club at Banker's restaurant Thursday night.

He also said "we in Adams County should not limit our desires and activities to matters which will improve only our own county but that we should take a broader view of the overall benefits to the Commonwealth as a whole. We must make a thorough analysis and accurate appraisal of all important matters which affect our state and national organization."

Candidates for local office were introduced as follows: Dawson Miller, sheriff, Erwin J. Baker, treasurer; Clyde Allison, clerk of the courts; G. Ed Taughnbaugh, associate judge. Each spoke briefly. Refreshments were served.

Orders Firing On Hostile Aircraft

WITH U. S. 6TH FLEET OFF TURKEY (AP)—Vice Adm. Charles R. Brown ordered American jet interceptors yesterday to shoot down with sidewinder missiles a possible hostile aircraft over the U. S. 6th Fleet. The plane escaped to Communist Bulgaria before U. S. Navy delta wing Sky-rays could catch it.

An unidentified plane believed to be Russian flew over American amphibious forces massed in Turkey's Saros Gulf at midday Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

It came in at high altitude from the direction of Bessarabia, across the Black Sea along the Romanian and Bulgarian coasts, across the Isthmus of Turkey and over the invasion fleet massed for a NATO exercise only 30 miles south of Bulgaria.

MAN, BURIED 7 HOURS IN DEEP TRENCH, SAVED

BALTIMORE (AP)—A 23-year-old workman who spent nearly seven hours partially pinned beneath tons of earth and rock at the bottom of an 18-foot-deep trench was rescued late Thursday night.

Dave Baer of Manchester, Md., father of two children, rested in St. Joseph's Hospital today, suffering from exhaustion but otherwise apparently unhurt.

Baer and another workman, Herschel Williams, 24, Butler, Md., were working at the bottom of the trench connecting sewer line pipes in suburban northeast Hamilton yesterday.

At 3:30 p.m., a cave-in buried Baer completely and covered Williams up to his waist. Two workmen on the surface quickly pulled Williams free and cleared the dirt from Baer's face and head within minutes. A hose carrying oxygen was dropped into the trench.

Pinned By Boulder

After six hours of dogged rescue effort, Baer was uncovered except for his ankles. A 25-pound boulder pinned his left ankle. As rescuers worked to lift it, another cave-in occurred, nearly trapping one worker and burying Baer up to his waist again.

It took 50 more minutes to dig this away.

Finally at 10:20 p.m., 6 hours and 50 minutes after the original cave-in, Baer—still conscious and in good condition although exhausted—was carried up a ladder out of the deep, dark damp trench.

REFUTE HOXSEY CANCER CLAIMS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Two doctors of a woman who received treatment at the Hoxsey Cancer clinic in Portage, Pa., have testified it was worthless.

Drs. Thomas Marshman Jr. and Graham Barefoot of Wilmington, N. C., testified yesterday at a non-jury trial in U. S. District Court before Judge John L. Miller.

The trial is on a government request for a permanent injunction to stop the clinic from dealing with out-of-state patients.

Asked about pills given to Mrs. Delma Albertson at the clinic, Dr. Marshman said, "I know of no therapeutic effect of that treatment on any type of cancer. It's worthless as far as I'm concerned."

Others Testify

Dr. Barefoot testified "films will show there is a gradual increase of density in her lungs due to interrupting" a series of X-ray treatments he had been giving Mrs. Albertson.

The woman previously testified she stopped taking treatments prescribed by the two physicians and went to the Portage clinic. She since has resumed treatments from them.

Durin Scurry Jr., 49, of Sumpter, S. C., who said his cancerous right lung was removed in 1954, testified he was treated for the same ailment two years later at the clinic.

Scurry said he made four trips to the clinic and returned home with a prescription for a liquid medicine, and green, red, white and tan pills.

GAY LOTHARIO IS ARRESTED

FALLS CHURCH, Va. (AP)—An 18-year-old youth who figured in a romantic escapade with the daughter of a Swedish diplomat last summer has been charged with stealing six automobile tires from a service station.

Fairfax County police called Huw Williams, a handsome six-footer, out of Falls Church High School yesterday and arrested him on a charge of grand larceny. They said Williams admitted the Sept. 1 theft.

Later, police in nearby Washington, D.C., said Williams and two 16-year-old youths admitted taking $41 and a watch from a 64-year-old Washingtonian last Wednesday.

Williams was lodged in the Fairfax County jail last night under $2,000 bond. Washington police filed a detainer on the robbery charge.

Williams was a student at the Capitol Page School when he disappeared last summer with Christina Wennerstrom, pretty 16-year-old daughter of Col. Stig Wennerstrom, who was Swedish air attaché at the time.

Their 18-day elopement was nipped when Williams was arrested for speeding near Williamsport, Pa. Huw and Christina said they had been unable to get married because of Christina's age.

Christina was whisked away to Sweden a couple of days later.

NEGRO PROTEST VACATES WHITES

THONOTOSASSA, Fla. (AP)—A county official said protests by members of a rural Negro area have caused a white couple to give up a home there on which construction had begun.

Mrs. Elton S. Van Riper said an anonymous man told her over the telephone "not to build on that ground." Mrs. Van Riper said she is sure the man was a Negro.

She said he did not make any threat but was "positive sounding" and "I was a nervous wreck after that." Her husband, a truck driver, is often away from home.

County Commissioner Elbert Moore said yesterday that a group of Negroes from the area came to him to protest against having a white family in the neighborhood, and he advised the Van Ripers against moving there.

"The Negroes made it plain they did not want any race mixing," Moore said. "I was willing to help those Negroes stay segregated if that's what they want."

The Van Ripers came to this small town, 20 miles northeast of Tampa, from Kansas City, Mo., about a year ago. They have put their 10-acre property up for sale since learning of the Negroes' objections.

Under the orders issued Thursday, there will be a net reduction of 12 wings and 13 squadrons of the Air National Guard and the Air Reserve. The regular Air Force is not affected.

Tagged for elimination within 90 days are specified units in Delaware, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Michigan, New York, Oregon, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. New units will be organized in Shreveport, La., and at Bradley Field, Conn.

Dropping of the Air Reserve units will eliminate 377 civilian jobs.

Let's Look At The Record

By Jim Dan Hill, Ph.D.

DUAL PURPOSE National Guard Has Double Allegiance; Its Federalization Is Unconstitutional

MANY well informed people are truly befuddled. To them the National Guard is an enigma. The Little Rock imbroglio offers just about the worst legalistic nightmare of conflicting constitutional authority American history has witnessed since Thad Stevens thundered against President Andrew Johnson on reconstruction policies immediately following the Civil War.

In each era both sides have cited with convincing logic constitutional principles in support of their respective lines of correct cutting action.

And back in those days, the National Guard steadfastly stood calm, right in the middle of the confusion just as it did at Little Rock. Its role was then misunderstood; it is perhaps more misunderstood today.

IN LITTLE ROCK there was the surprising phenomenon of federalized armed and equipped troops, in United States uniforms, responding to the perfectly legal orders of a state governor to set at naught the rulings of a United States court.

Many people actually thought or assumed the Guardsmen were being paid by the federal government. Of course, they were not, because they were not acting under a Federal call to duty, though their uniforms may have suggested as much.

FROM this welter of lack of understanding came the conventional and inevitable cry: "The National Guard must be completely federalized!"

That is always a popular shout with the regular army no matter what the issue may be. Too often they take up the cry instinctively without bothering to check the record.

THE BLUNT TRUTH is that the National Guard is very much in the constitution itself.

Furthermore, it is already as completely federalized as it constitutionally can be and still offer the taxpayers the economies and efficiencies inherent in a volunteer force with the dual purposes of complying with the constitutional provision that each state must have a military force on call, and the highly legitimate and desirable right of the Federal Government to call out and use those same troops in time of war.

It is to this end the Federal Government provides the equipment uniforms, and pays for training calculated to perfect them for immediate use anywhere or any distant battlefield.

UNTIL thus needed the governor may call them out to cope with crisis, be it disaster or maintenance of law and order.

And what does a state do when its troops go into federal service? It organizes a "Home Guard" for the duration and disbands it on return of the National Guard. A complete federalization of the National Guard into a federal militia (for which there is no constitutional authority) would not only be unconstitutional but would also put the states to the expense of Home Guard militias in time of peace as well as during a war.

THE NATIONAL GUARD is in the constitution as big as life and twice as tall. The second amendment, Bill of Rights, stipulates: "A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." And that is the entire amendment without any confusing whereases and wherebys.

A radio commentator last week stumbled across this provision. He decided that laws against gangsters carrying pistols in shoulder holsters and tommy guns in fiddle cases were actually unconstitutional. However, since their constitutional right to bear arms had been abridged without rescinding this amendment, why could not any other unpleasant features of our constitution likewise be ignored, in the drafting of any desirable legislation?

SUCH a goofy interpretation comes from not looking in the history and the purpose of the amendment itself.

The intent of the founding fathers, as revealed by discussions, debates, was to guarantee that each state of the newly created union would always have at its disposal a military force with which to meet an Indian uprising, to be called out in case of a crisis or to maintain law and order within the state, should it be necessary.

In those days, each citizen soldier was in many states required to equip himself with both weapons and uniforms. In return for this service he often enjoyed special tax exemptions.

Thus the stipulation that these men might keep arms was in harmony with the practice of the day. Their right to bear them in the service of their state, and that the state might thereby always have a military force for meeting its own crises, were the principles against which there should be no federal infringement.

"THE NEED INCREASES"

The need for God increases... with every passing day... the more we learn, the more we're apt... to drift and go astray... for knowledge is quite dangerous... without a guiding light... mankind needs God to show the way... to what is wrong or right... if we are to survive the age... of vast atomic power... spiritual faith must form... foundations for each lower... when citadels are built on faith... they benefit mankind... helping people everywhere... gain peace of soul and mind... and so we must remember... to balance brains with prayer... then every new discovery... will bring forth comfort rare.

ELKTON, Md. (AP)—A cluster of 10 rockets which the Air Force soon will fire as a single high altitude research vehicle will be the first of six. And each is expected to top the performance of the first in unprecedented speeds and altitudes.

It was disclosed here yesterday that the four-stage project for side rocket—to be fired from a balloon 100,000 feet above Eniwetok atoll in the Pacific—will hit a top velocity of 17,000 m.p.h. in soaring straight up to an expected altitude of between 1,000 and 4,000 miles.

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—The 23rd and next to last shot of the current atomic test series burst with a stunning white flash over the Nevada desert at 6 a. m. today.

An observer in Las Vegas, 85 miles away, said the flash was the brightest he'd seen during the summer and fall series.

Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart of Michigan rides a bicycle four blocks from his home to his office at the capitol in Lansing every day.

The guest package, given by Mrs. Edward Plunkert was won by Mrs. Cleason Plunkert.

During the business session, plans were made to serve a banquet to the Sunday School classes taught by Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner and Luther D. Snyder on November 4. It was announced that members are requested to bring their baby picture along to the next meeting on Thursday, October 31, at the church. Those not taking a baby photo of themselves will have to pay a cash fine. The October hostesses will be Mrs. Annie Pfeffer, Mrs. Edgar Pfeffer and Mrs. Martha Bemiller. ## Emergency

"If the President personally took decisions, but as long as he is told what to do by the palace guard, nothing can be done," Faubus did not elaborate on "palace guard."

An emergency legislative session might take up the questions of abolishing the state public school system or withdrawing state financial aid from integrated institutions.

If the public school system were abolished, presumably the state might offer financial aid to some types of private schools.

Faubus last night in effect rejected any plan to close schools.

Tension Remains

It was obvious that tension still remained in Little Rock despite the outward appearance of peace. One evidence was the high rate of absenteeism at Central High. About 25 per cent of the 2,000 pupils enrolled remained away from classes Friday. However, the fact that 200 returned to the school after Wednesday's low registration of 1,250 indicated that the tension was easing.

President Eisenhower kept close watch on the situation with two calls to Atty. Gen. Brownell yesterday from vacation headquarters at Newport, R. I. But there was no hint from the White House of when federal troops would be withdrawn from Little Rock.

TO STAY ON DST

Chambersburg's Town Council Thursday night reversed its action of September 9 and voted to extend Daylight Saving Time until 2 a. m. on October 27. Letterken-ny Ordinance Dept. officials said Friday the military installation will operate on its current Daylight Time schedule through October 27 as a result of action by Chambersburg's Town Council.

Four Companies Save Barn On Bender Farm: Four fire companies and over 100 firemen took part Monday morning and afternoon in what appeared up to press time to be a successful effort to prevent the barn on the Milton R. Bender farm, Bonneville road, from being destroyed despite the fact that the hay inside the barn has been blazing since shortly before noon.

The Gettysburg fire company was called at 11:25 o'clock. Two Bonneville fire trucks arrived shortly after Gettysburg pumpers pulled into the scene. Apparatus from the New Oxford and Littlestown companies arrived shortly after 12 o'clock.

Nearly all the water in a pond located on the farm of Samuel Dayhoff was used before the firemen could set up their pumping system to a stream.

Today's Talk*BOOKS AND LIFE

People who have not gathered about them a carefully selected group of books do not realize what they are passing up. Books are life, just the same as the ones who wrote them and who never die, not even in the books that they create.

To give a book away is to pass something vital to the hands of another. I was recently reading about my dear friend Christopher Morley, whom I knew for so long, and who was the greatest lover of books I have ever met. His little masterpiece, "Parnassus on Wheels," will be loved by book lovers for so long as books are read and sold.

The important thing about having a collection of books in your home is not to show purposes, but as a testimonial to the significance of books, and the joy and comfort they never fail to bring, if they are first loved. I am not happy without books about me wherever I may be. I have books that are full of happy memories — books in which can be shared the moods of the writer. Next to the life of a writer is the book that he creates. Montaigne used to tell those who wanted to know about him to go and buy his book. The great writer lives and breathes in his book.

Many are the books I have purchased at second-hand book shops. Some people when they dispose of them to a dealer tear the fly leaf out because they apparently do not wish future readers to know that they were through with the book, but I like them as they may be, intact with the names of the ones who once loved them. Books are life!

SYMPATHY
The kind of sympathy I like
Is that which shuns advice,
And doesn't waste a lot of time
In conversation nice;
But that you get when someone comes

Along and says to you:
"Your road is tough, old man, but There something I can do?"

I don't go on pretty words
And phrases soft and round,
And sighs and tears ain't never helped

A feller much, I've found.
Just feeling sorry for a man
Won't cheer him when he's blue.

The thing that helps is this: "Old man,
What is there I can do?"

Time was the lump was in my throat
And many came to me
And shook my hand and offered up
Their heartfelt sympathy.

But one there was came near whose words
Were very few indeed,
But what he said meant much;
'Twas this:

"What is it that you need?"

RACIAL ISSUE, CIVIL RIGHTS TO HURT ELECTIONS

By ED CREAGH
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Whatever may happen next in Little Rock, or elsewhere in the South, the 1958 and 1960 elections will be held. That's one prediction it seems safe to make in the troubled integration picture. Whatever else happens, politics will go on as usual.

The campaigns will be complicated, of course, by the whole civil rights situation, by the Little Rock disorders and President Eisenhower's calling out federal troops, in particular.

Politicians and those who try to keep tabs on the politicians were busy assessing the portents by the time the first paratrooper plied out of a plane in Arkansas.

A variety of their predictions has got into print.

GOP Are Optimistic
Republicans sound the more optimistic, for two main reasons:

1. They think they'll pick up great numbers of northern Negro votes as a result of the President's decisive action in calling out troops at Little Rock. This comes as a great relief to them. They'd been afraid previously that Negroes would think Eisenhower was dithering when he should have been acting to enforce the anti-segregation decrees.

2. GOP strategists think, or at least hope, the Democratic party has blown apart again along its North-South seam. So Democrats concede they may be right.

Some—like Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.)—say it's just as well. "It would mean getting the Dixiecrats out of the party," says Douglas. Others, like Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.), lament the possible loss of a single vote. Johnson could hardly be expected to welcome a collapse of the North-South truce. He would need a united party if he hoped to get the party's presidential nomination.

Democrats See Advantages
Democrats see possible advantages to themselves growing out of the integration fight:

1. They don't see how a Republican presidential candidate could carry a single Southern state after a Republican president called out the "Feds." Eisenhower cracked the "Solid" South in 1952 and 1956, and Democrat Harry Truman lost part of it in 1948. The Democratic argument is that Dixie is safe from the Republicans for the next few years even though a new states rights party should arise and threaten to take some states from the Democrats.

2. Democratic planners wonder if the Republicans didn't lose a pile of votes in the North, as well as in the South, through the President's use of federal troops. They figure a good many white Northerners are "gains" integration and resent the President's action. How the Democrats can appeal to this group, while coming up with a civil rights stand which will attract Negroes, is one of many problems to be ironed out at the party's 1960 convention.

It may be noteworthy that leaders of neither party are making any great claims at this point.

Hoffa Opponents Win One Skirmish

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opponents of James R. Hoffa and other present top men in the Teamsters Union won a preliminary skirmish Friday in their federal court battle to block election of new officers at next week's Teamsters convention.

Asking for an injunction, a group of New York Teamsters members contends that delegates to the union session about to open in Miami Beach, Fla., have been illegally selected to rig the election in favor of Hoffa.

Hoffa, Midwest boss of the Teamsters and a chief target of corruption charges by the Senate committee investigating labor-management rackets, is the odds-on candidate to succeed Dave Beck, retiring from the union presidency in the wake of Senate committee disclosures about his own affairs.

U.S. Dist. Judge F. Dickinson Letts overruled a motion by union attorneys to quash the New York case.

RIOT TRAINING ORDER IS DEAD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Army Wilber Brucker said Friday a canceled order for stepped-up riot training of troops in the South "will not be revived." But Brucker still would not disclose just what the order said.

In a kinsize mixup the Army issued the order Wednesday, the day after President Eisenhower sent paratroopers into Little Rock. Brucker personally killed it last night within hours after it became publicly known.

Brucker said then the order might be misinterpreted. And the Army, embarrassed and angry, clamped a tight secrecy lid on its details lest they feed the fires of controversy over the use of troops to enforce racial integration at Little Rock's Central High School.

Friday Brucker would say only the order "has been revoked and will not be revived."

Speaking briefly with newsmen, Brucker smilingly declined to discuss the matter further or to say who actually signed the order.

"It is a closed book," Brucker said.

Plan To Study Big Jet Airport

WASHINGTON (AP)—The civil aeronautics administrator has promised he'll take a "long, hard look" at a proposal to build a mammoth jet airport in Burlington County, N.J.

Administrator James T. Pyle told a New Jersey delegation on Thursday he'll look into such things as available air space and economic feasibility before reaching a decision.

The delegation, representing the Burlington County Planning Board, included New Jersey State Senate President Albert McCay (R-Burlington).

The group asked recognition of their plan in order that a grant of $350,000 might be obtained from the Housing and Home Finance Agency to underwrite an engineering study and master plan for the airport, designed to service the New York-Philadelphia area.

UNION OFFICIAL TELLS PROBERS ABOUT THREAT

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former official of a Teamsters Union local in Michigan testified Friday he once was threatened with death because he refused to help a brother of James R. Hoffa in "getting in the rackets."

The official was Robert Scott, a former secretary-treasurer of the Michigan Federation of Labor. Scott told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee also that he was once advised by Owen (Bert) Brennan, an associate of Hoffa and president of Teamster Local 337 in Detroit, that he "had better have his insurance paid up."

Tells Of Threat
Scott said Brennan made the comment when Brennan was trying to persuade him to "put a fix in" for a gambling joint in Oakland County, Mich.

Scott, now a member of the Michigan State Board of Barber Examiners, was called as the Senate committee headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) pressed its investigation into the affairs of Hoffa, Midwest boss of the Teamsters Union and leading contender to succeed Dave Beck as union president.

Scott said that in 1952 when he planned to resign from the Michigan Federation of Labor Hoffa threatened to "break both my arms and legs." But he said he resigned anyway because he didn't approve of the way Hoffa and others were changing the federation constitution.

Scott testified, too, that he once spied on a Michigan grand jury for Hoffa.

D. A. Is Charged With Conspiracy

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP) — The state Friday filed charges of conspiracy against Dist. Atty. Perry L. Reeder of Lawrence County in connection with the distribution of literature attacking candidates in the April primary election.

The charges were filed by Lt. Richard Gray of the state police before Justice of the Peace C. E. Anderson of Neshannock Twp.

Two counts of conspiracy were filed. Specifically, Reeder was accused of helping seven other men prepare and distribute pamphlets that allegedly libeled Howard Lyon, Reeder's opponent for the Republican nomination for district attorney in the primary.

The other seven men and a woman have already been indicted on charges of conspiracy and libel on candidates.

Asian Flu Cases Double In Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Public Health Service Friday estimated the number of Asian flu cases in the country more than doubled last week.

In its weekly summary, the service put the number of new cases at 122,650 in the week ending Sept. 21. This was a jump to 222,650 from the previous week's cumulative total of 100,000.

The service explained that its estimate was based on incomplete reports from state health officers and the armed forces.

MARINE KILLED BY HURRICANE

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — Typhoon Faye struck this U. S. island stronghold Thursday with suddenly developed winds of 146 miles an hour, killing one U.S. Marine and at least 19 Okinawans.

Military spokesmen said the Marine died in Ryukyus Army Hospital after being hit by flying debris at the height of the 10-hour storm. His name was withheld.

The Ryukyus government said the death toll among Okinawans is expected to mount. Officials reported 112 island residents were injured and more than 100 are missing. Twenty-one fishing boats each carrying two or three men were unaccounted for.

Raking the 65-mile-long island, the typhoon caused damage to military installations, equipment and planes that is expected to top 10 million dollars. The Air Force said that damage to aircraft was extensive, but gave no details.

Today the storm was blowing itself out in the Pacific 50 miles off the Japanese coast.

Warriors Jolt Shippensburg 27-12; Keefer Thrills With 69-Yard Punt Return For TD

A grandstand full of surprised Gettysburg High School fans watched a spirited Warrior team trounce favored Shippensburg outfit 27-12 in the local's second home game Friday night. Gettysburg scored at 6:05 of the first quarter and 8:05 of the second to lead at half-time, 14-0. Following a third quarter score by Shippensburg, the Warriors came back in 4:05 of the fourth period to lead 21-6 and scored again at 2:25 for six more. Shippensburg added six more to trail 27-12 at 8:15 of the fourth.

Gettysburg faced a hard-running, hard-hitting Shippensburg team that specialized in quick plays, but sparked by quarterback Earl Little's two touchdown passes and three PATs, and halfback Kenny Keefer's 69-yard TD punt return, the Warriors downed Shippensburg's try for a third win this season.

Little opened the game with a kick to Shippensburg's Donald Coy on the 10, who returned it to the 30. After a first down and a 22-yard run by Thomas Reed, Shippensburg lost on downs on the Gettysburg 35. A first down and a three-yard run by Keefer placed the Warriors in enemy territory.

Little took the ball on the 39 and on end run reached the 26. Bob Furney and Rex Baltzley carried, setting up Little's TD pass to Keefer. Little converted with a placement.

Shippensburg failed to gain a first down, punted recovered a Gettysburg fumble on the home team's 43 and moved to the 10 before the Warriors recovered a fumble on their 11 at the end of the quarter.

After a first down Gettysburg punted only to recover the fumbled return attempt on the Shippensburg 38. Furney carried twice to gain ten and Baltzley went around end for 12. With the ball on the 14, Little passed to Keefer on the 5. Furney carried for two and then went over the goal only to be called back on a five-yard penalty. Furney went for one and Keefer lost 2 before Little hit Keith Mackenzie in the end zone. Again Little booted the point.

Shippensburg fumbled on Gettysburg's 47 after two plays Gettysburg went for a first down and then lost the ball in what appeared to be confusion among officials as to the number of downs. Both teams failed first downs before the half.

Reed Pounds Over
Starting on their own 26 in the third period Shippensburg moved 74 yards for a score. Reed went for 20 around end, gained another first down, and Chester Jones went to the Gettysburg 20 on a 23-yard run. With another first down and a 15-yard penalty against Gettysburg, Shippensburg's Reed pushed over from the one-yard line for a TD.

A run failed to gain the PAT. Following the ensuing kickoff, the Warriors failed to gain and punted deep into Shippensburg territory. A few plays later, Bob Nelson, a strong performer throughout, snared a Hound pass and battled his way to the 30 before being felled.

The Warriors pounded their way to the 5 and on the first play of the final quarter Furney ripped through to score. Little added his third straight extra point on a placement.

Keefer Thrills Fans
A few minutes later Keefer reeled off his thrilling run. Shippensburg was held after receiving the kickoff and punted. The speedy Warrior back juggled the ball, reversed his field, dodged, weaved and spun from several tacklers along the north side line before shaking clear to go 69 yards into pay dirt. He got some assists from teammates with important blocks. Little missed his kick for the point when his boot was off to the left.

A quick kick midway in the last period set Shippensburg back on its 5 when Gar, Maitland dropped on the ball. The Hounds then took to the air, Fred Martin grabbing the ball on his 20 and racing to the Warriors' 39 before being dropped. Aided by a Gettysburg penalty, Shippensburg moved ahead, Reed cracking over from the 5 for the score. A run for the point was smothered.

Team Victory
It was a team victory all the way for the vastly improved Warrior outfit and each of Coach Ben Jones' lads put up a strong game.

Next Friday Gettysburg engages

NFL WILL OPEN SEASON SUNDAY WITH 6 GAMES

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

The Associated Press

The National Football League opens its 38th—and perhaps its most profitable—season Sunday with the rivals who may give them the most trouble this year.

The New York Giants, defending champions, play their first league game in Cleveland against the Browns, who won the Eastern Division title six times before the Giants beat them out last year.

The bruising Chicago Bears go to Green Bay to help dedicate the new Packer Stadium and possibly to justify their pre-season selection as the team most likely to win the 1957 title.

Other Opens

Other opening day games are Detroit at Baltimore, Washington at Pittsburgh, Philadelphia at Los Angeles and Chicago Cardinals at San Francisco.

Commissioner Bert Bell already is on record with a prediction that attendance this season will exceed last year's 2½ million total and the expanding television program will bring more than $1,000,000 into the team treasuries.

The Giants are about the only team that hasn't been greatly changed since last season. The Browns still is in the throes of rebuilding. The Browns will have to get a big league performance from one of two rookie quarterbacks, Milt Plum of Penn State or John Barton of Ohio State, to develop a winner.

Have What It Takes

The Bears appear to have everything needed to make a winner. The Packers, going like gangbusters in the exhibitions, may be the ones to provide a test.

Packer Coach Liz Blackburn, traded off one of the league's best quarterbacks, Tobin Rote, to strengthen other positions but he still has Bill Howton to take passes from Babe Parilli and freshman Paul Hornung.

The acquisition of Rote to spell Bobby Layne has strengthened the Detroit Lions.

Pittsburgh, trading like mad, grabbed many players by giving up valuable future draft choices, apparently is determined to make a good showing this year at all costs.

The other clubs in both divisions have some weak spots, but they are pretty evenly matched and could make trouble for the top teams.

55-Yard Pass Play Gives Littlestown 19-13 Win Over Lions In Last Frame

A touchdown in the last period with but 4:20 minutes remaining on a 55-yard pass play from Jess Sheely to Darryl Bollinger gave Littlestown High School a thrilling 19-13 victory over hitherto unbeaten Red Lion Friday evening before about 1,000 fans at Littlestown.

Littlestown got off to a 13-0 lead, saw it melt into a 13-13 tie, and then pulled its winning touchdown pass to hike the Thunderbolts' season record to 2-1. It was the first loss after two wins for Ronnie Fitzkee's Lions.

Late in the opening period the Lions were put in a hole via a bad pass from center. Forced to punt out, the Lions were in hot water when Ron Crouse returned the kick 13 yards to the visitors' 39. At the end of the period the Bolts had a first down on the 20.

Boils Pass For Score

On the first play of the second period Bobby Nester whipped a pass to Jack Busbey on the 15 and he booted over from there. Ron Crouse's kick for the point was wide.

Late in the quarter Red Lion drove 57 yards to the Littlestown 3 where it lost the ball on a fumble, the half ending shortly thereafter.

Littlestown took possession of the ball on the Lions' 40 early in the third period when the Lions fourth-down pass was incomplete. It took just seven plays for Coach Wib Gobrecht's lads to score, Nester smacking over from the 1. Sheely passed to Carl Bankert to add the point to make it 13-0.

Lions Roar Back

Red Lion then swung into action. After a 20-yard jaunt by Lonnie Barnhart and a 13-yarder by Rod Sechrist, the Lions reached the Bolts' 25. Three plays later Cleon Spence circled left end from the 21. Barnhart's kick for the point was low.

The score was knotted early in the fourth period when Littlestown kicked from deep in its territory out to its own 3. Eight plays were required for a score, Sechrist plunging across from the 1 and then adding the extra point on another line thrust to knot the count at 13-13.

A short time later Sheely and Bollinger turned in their thrilling winning touchdown pass-play.

LEW BURDETTE LOOKS READY FOR SERIES AS HE BEATS REDS

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

Lew Burdette, Milwaukee's No. 1 righthander, looks rarin' to go in next week's world series against the New York Yankees — and therein lies a story.

The last time the Braves took a shot at the world championship they played the Cleveland Indians with their pitching hopes pinned on Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn.

Now, nine years after their failure, they have another crack at the title, this time against the Yankees, and this time with Spahn and Burdette — the guy the Yankees didn't want and packed off to the Braves along with $50,000 cash in a swap for Sain in 1951.

Yanks Vanquish Boston

The 30-year-old righthander looked ready last night, gaining a 17-9 record with a neat four-hitter that defeated Cincinnati 2-1. He struck out four, walked but two while defeating the Redlegs for fifth time this season. Wally Poff's 20th homer junked his shut-out bid in the seventh, but home runs by Andy Patko and Del Crandall had given Burdette the bulge he needed in the fifth off rookie Charley Rale.

The Yankees readied for the series with a 10-2 breeze at Boston as Bob Turley won his 13th while allowing only two hits in a seven-inning warmup. He struck out eight, walked four and gave up a run on Billy Consolo's homer.

The Yankees made it easy for the fast-balling righthander, building a 10-1 lead within six frames with Harry Simpson driving in four runs on a triple and double.

Cards Bow To Cubs

Neither Mickey Mantle nor Bill Skowron, out with injuries made the trip to Boston.

In the other National League games last night, the Chicago Cubs scored twice in the eighth, with rookie Eddie Haas' double the clincher, for a 3-2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals; and rookie Jack Sanford won his 19th as the Philadelphia Phillies beat Brooklyn 3-2. The New York Giants and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

In the American League, Chicago's White Sox defeated Cleveland 2-1, locking the Indians in the second division for the first time since 1946 and guarantee a first division berth for Detroit for the time since 1950. The Tigers were beaten 9-7 by Kansas City with Jim Bunning missing on his third try for a 20th victory. Baltimore belted Washington 7-3, although Roy Sievers socked his 42nd home run for the Senators, who now can't escape the cellar.

Sanford had a four-hit shutout for eight, then was busted for Sandy Amoros' two-run homer with two out in the ninth. Willie Jones' homer in the sixth wrapped it against rookie Bill Harris.

YANKEES HOLD SERIES FUTURE OF J. DEMERIT

NEW YORK (AP)—Milwaukee

bo-nus baby John DeMerit won't be made eligible for the World Series until—and if—the New York Yankees approve.

Commissioner Ford Frick made this clear today and also pointed out that there would be no "deal" between the two clubs, for example, making Sal (The Barber) Maglie eligible for the Yanks.

There has been talk that the Yanks might play hard to get in the hopes of having Maglie made eligible. Rumors also were making the rounds that the Braves might ask to have outfielder Ray Shearer made eligible.

"Nothing like that is going on," said Frick. "Maglie could not be made eligible for the Series under any circumstances because he was not with the team before Sept. 1."

"The same goes for Shearer. He wasn't with the club before Sept. 1."

Frick was asked if there was any possibility that the Yanks might approve of DeMerit playing if Maglie were made eligible. "None at all, he replied.

Yanks Not Happy

As for the Yanks, they didn't seem particularly pleased at being put in a position of doing the Braves a favor.

General Manager George Weiss of the Yanks said he would not make any decision until he talked with Stengel in Boston.

The tempest started yesterday when the Braves applied to Frick to be allowed to play DeMerit in the Series in place of the injured Billy Bruton. DeMerit originally had been taken off the list of eligibles to make room for Bruton, who had been injured at mid-season. But Bruton's torn knee cartilages have been slow to respond.

Delone Trips Chambersburg In Free-Scoring Affair 27-20 To Win Third Straight Game

WRITER PICKS BRAVES TO WIN IN SIX GAMES

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Take the batting, fielding and pitching records of the Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees . . . then take a number from four to seven and throw them all in a hat.

What have you got? The World Series winner in the correct number of games? No, just a debris-filled chapeau.

Statistical comparison furnishes an excellent guide to the relative merits of the individual players. But it doesn't tell the entire story.

Other Factors

Equally contributing factors in determining the winner of the 1957 baseball championship will be the accuracy of the scouting reports, the physical condition of the Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron, the ability of the Braves to stand up to the Yanks in the pressure-packed competition and the Yankee advantage, however small, in playing the first two games in their home ball park.

Zettle Urges Full-Feeding Of Roughage And Grain To Cows As Soon After Freshening As Possible

By FRANK ZETTEL
Adams County Farm Agent

Cows should be full-fed roughage and grain as soon as possible following freshening. Nutrient requirements of the cow are great at freshening because of the energy expended during labor, the making-up of the udder, the secretion of highly nutritive colostrum, losses of body fluid, repair of tissues and increasing levels of milk production. Thus, the protein requirement of the cow is greater at freshening than at any other time in her lactation.

Keep Well Fed
Get the boar home before you want to use him. Feed a good ration of ample grain, protein, and minerals to keep him growing and in good condition.

Need Warm Water
The long-established practice of bringing cows on full grain feeding very gradually is contrary to good nutrition, and present knowledge of metabolic disorders such as ketosis. Take care, however, not to discourage appetite at any time.

Provide cows with warm water as soon as possible after freshening. This combats chilling which may pre-dispose the cow to various reproductive tract infections. The first one or two feedings of grain following calving can be fed as a mash. Such a practice may encourage concentrate consumption and increase fluid intake.

Select Boar Carefully
If you want to purchase a meat-type boar, first list the things you are looking for in a good boar. A boar should be somewhat longer than the market barrows he will sire from the average sow herd. The boar can be expected to carry his length with a good topline, trim underline, uniform width from front to rear, a well spring rib and width in his chest. Commercial breeders needn't worry too much about breed, color, head and ear if they get the other things. A boar doesn't look masculine with a long, thin neck and a narrow head, so buy a boar that looks like a "he."

Don't sacrifice herd quality for a poor boar, just because he is cheap.

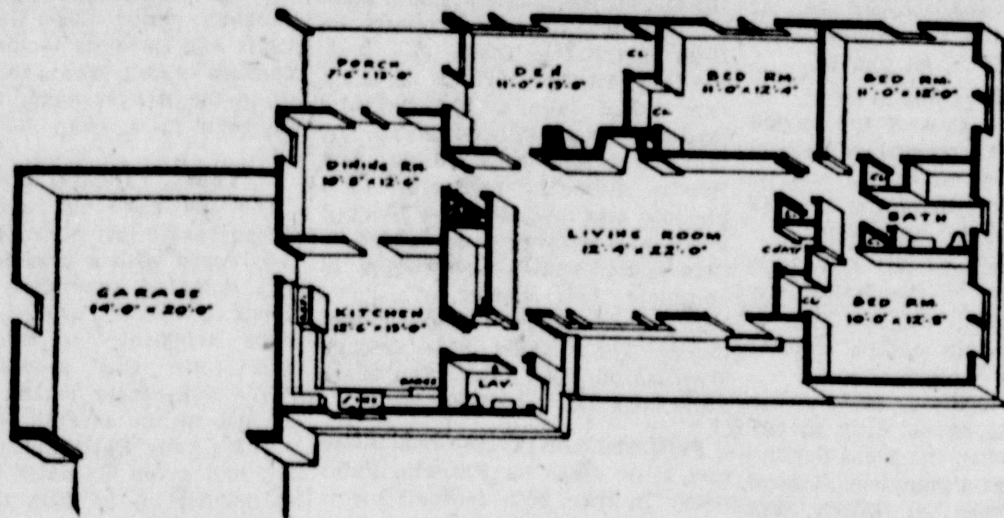

Many commercial producers with larger sow herds plan to have one boar to each 18 to 20 sows; some, one boar to each 15 to 18 sows. Always see that the boar is well fed. He should not have to fight for feed. Put emphasis on a minimum of 1½ pounds of a good protein supplement and see that he gets it along with all the grain he will eat during the breeding season.

Keep Eggs Cool
Mechanical refrigeration is recommended as a positive way to control egg room temperatures and so keep eggs at their best between delivery dates.

But it's still possible to do a fair job of holding eggs at top quality by means available on most farms.

Storage at relatively high humidity is still the poultryman's first target in maintaining quality. The egg room should be held above 75 and better, around 80 per cent humidity. This can be done by wetting down the concrete walls of the room by means of water from a drip pipe near the ceiling. As this water evaporates room temperature will also be lowered. Several ordinary room fans set placement of furniture.

Dining Area

With the dining room opening directly off the kitchen, it will be no problem serving all of your family's meals in this room. The porch also can be screened in and offers a delightful place for summer dining as well as recreation. A small but compact kitchen features plenty of counter space and is designed to save steps.

Notice that the kitchen is in the front of the house, a feature that is becoming increasingly popular, making it an easy move to the front door. as bedrooms; each features excellent lighting and ventilation as well as a full size closet. Should you need a fourth bedroom, you can use the den for this purpose.

With television viewing gaining in popularity, the den will be a much lived-in room and preventing valued living room furniture from abuse.

Both a bathroom and a lavette are included in this plan. In the bathroom there is plenty of room to move around as well as the added feature of a linen closet. The lavette is conveniently placed right off the kitchen.

Throughout the house there is an abundance of closet space—even a broom closet strategically placed between living room and dining room.

Stairs lead down to the basement from the small hallway leading from the side door and connecting the kitchen and lavatory. Both heating and laundry equipment will be installed in the basement but there will be adequate room for workshop, recreation room, etc.

Pine exterior lines mark this as a house of distinction in any neighborhood. A pleasing combination of shingles or clapboard with natural stained wood produces a luxurious yet inexpensive appearance.

The garage is good size—easy to get into yet roomy enough to hold garden tools and other things. On cold winter nights you'll appreciate the direct entrance from garage into the kitchen.

The living space of this ranch house measures 1622 square feet and the garage 380 square feet. This design is approved by both the VA and the FHA. Complete blueprints and specifications of "The Karen" are available with a money back guarantee if for any reason the builder decides not to proceed with building plans.

Complete plans and specifications for this house and all other "Home of the Week" designs are available at moderate cost.

CHOKES TO DEATH

HARRISBURG — Mrs. John Bowman Delaney, 36, wife of the vice president of Bowman's Department Store in Harrisburg, choked to death Thursday when a pickled beet lodged in her throat.

Dr. Thomas J. Fritchey, Dauphin County coroner, said a post mortem examination revealed the cause of her unexpected death.

USING A HANDSAW

DO... in using the most common of the handsaws—the cross-cut saw—grasp the handle firmly with the right hand (if you are right-handed) so that the thumb touches one side of the handle and the index finger touches the other.

DO... take long, smooth strokes without fighting the wood as many beginners do.

DON'T... rip saw unless the work is firmly supported, either on sawhorses or in a vise.

DON'T... neglect to hold the rip saw at an angle of about 45 degrees while cutting.

DO... start the cut with a couple of upward strokes, then complete the job on the downstrokes at about a 45-degree angle.

DO... be sure to make the cut along the outer or waste side of the pencilled or scribed line, if a precise measurement is important.

DON'T... when you get near the end of a cut, twist the piece off with the saw blade; cut right through to the end, using extra light cuts to avoid splitting the wood.
